A beautiful picture of why we do what we do. It's never been about the building— it's about building relationship.

Ministry Update

So many thanks to our sponsors, donors, and participants who gave of their time, talent and treasure this year to help make what we do possible!

I am happy to report that over this past month, we've supplied adequate, dry, secure shelter for 2 deserving families.

The first, in mid-October, was for a family of 6. Total weekly income: $63 USD. The oldest child, Lorena, 10, had never slept in a bed. Their completed home is pictured at right but I've posted a YouTube video of their living conditions beforehand:

The second home, just completed on November 5 was for a family of 5. Total weekly income is $50. Two of the three boys are in school but, as is typical, the older sibling was not. Your donations have made it possible for Jorge to now reenter school!

Your donations not only provide shelter and education but, as you will read in the balance of this letter, it also serves those in need in myriad ways!

These homes- while small- are a huge improvement over their previous homes. Finally, off the dirt floor and new, clean beds for all!

In His Almighty Grip,

Ministry Spotlight

Canadian couple Wayne and Claire Wagner began their daycare ministry in 2009 as a way to help the working families in Maneadero. It has since grown to 50 children, under the age of 5, who receive care in their facility on a daily basis. This arrangement allows the Wagners to share the love of Jesus with the children and the families in a very practical way.

They also house 13 children in the orphanage, also located on their land and our November team got to love on the kids for an afternoon—playing sports, enjoying crafts together, etc.

Their biggest need at the time of our visit was a new roof on their own home. As a result of your generosity, they are sleeping dry now!

Looking for a worthwhile ministry to support? They'd love to hear from you!

Make your gift work harder by doubling it through a matching gift from your employer. Hundreds of companies will match the charitable gifts made or volunteer hours logged by their employees or retirees. Both large companies and small businesses match. Simply completing a short form from your employer's human resources department can mean another gift to the charity of your choice.

Feeding Programs

Our teams are also often privileged enough to be directly involved in the feeding programs that we support. In addition to supplying the necessary funds, we were able to purchase and deliver food staples during our October visit.

An added privilege was to dispense food to individual families in Durango.
